Historical Review

OF THE

CITY OF SACRAMENTO.

The principal events in the past of Sacramento, may be briefly set forth as follows:

The first American who effected a settlement on the present site of our flourishing city, was the renowned pioneer, Gen. Jno. A. Sutter. Whenever an authentic history of Sacramento is written, his name must stand foremost, and most prominent, upon its pages. By his indomitable enterprise, the way was opened for future American occupancy, by the building of the "Fort," for protection against surrounding Indians, by reducing those tribes, in a great measure, to submission and friendship, and by opening a road to the Sacramento River, over the present site of the City of Sacramento, which point was then known as "The Embarcadero," and so styled, until that anno mirabilis, Forty-Nine.

In December, 1848, was made the first survey of the region now occupied by the City of Sacramento, for the purpose of laying out a city. This task was performed by Capt. Wm. H. Warner, and the name of Sacramento given the projected town.

The discovery of gold, being, by this time, fully authenticated and accredited at the East, thousands upon thousands of enterprising business men were hastening to the country. Not a few of these, perceived the eligibility of Sacramento, as a center for their trading operations with the mining districts. Thus, the rising town seemed, even at that early day, destined to be the City of the Interior—a position which she still holds—and, as it is but fair to presume that her advancement will continue, at least, commensurately with that of her civic neighbors, we may safely predict this to be the commanding position which she will continue to hold, while progress marks the First State of the Pacific Coast.

The most untoward event which threatened the prosperity and permanency of Sacramento, was "The Great Fire of '52." At this time the city was in a flourishing condition—its streets filled with busy throngs, and its numerous places of business well supplied and patronized.

The sun went down on a fair town, with its thousand roofs sheltering a hopeful and unfearing population—it rose upon smoking timbers, demolished roof-trees, and desolated homes. A fire had broken out about 11 o'clock, P.M., November 2d, and, notwithstanding every exertion to check its progress, it swept away, in a single night, the results of months of unsparing labor.

The loss, by this wholesale destruction, was estimated at something between four and five millions of dollars. The city records, and papers of importance, were, fortunately, rescued from the flames.

But the recuperative energy of the young city was not exhausted by this fearful drain upon its strength, and Sacramento arose, from its ruins, in more fair and goodly proportions than before. In the short space of one month, no less than sixty-five brick buildings, and nearly twice that number of frame buildings, were completed, besides numberless others, in course of construction. The Orleans Hotel, a fine brick building, was rebuilt in the surprisingly short time of twenty days.

But this new advance of the enterprising city, was destined to receive a fresh blow. The unexampled rise in the Sacramento River produced an overflow, by which the city was flooded, from the 20th of December, 1852, to the 24th of January, 1853. The loss by this calamity, in the destruction of property, and suspension of business, can scarcely be estimated. And again, on the first of April, 1853, the larger portion of the town was overflown, by the back-water that passed the levee through the crevasse cut to drain off the January flood.

Since that date, Sacramento has, at different times, suffered severely from fires, but has proven herself able to rise, superior to all such misfortunes, and the constantly increasing efficiency of her most excellent and zealous Fire Department, as well as the greater number of fire-proof buildings, seem to warrant the hope that such calamities will be of less magnitude, and of less frequent occurrence, for the future.

Sacramento, like most of our early settlements in California, was first governed, according to Mexican rule, by an Alcalde. This continued until the month of July, 1849, when a movement was made toward altering the form of Government, with a view to its conformity to American habits and opinions. The result was that an election was held at the St. Louis Exchange, on Second street, between I and J, for the purpose of choosing Town Councilmen, who were duly elected, and held their first meeting on the 1st day of August, 1849.

Soon after, Col. J. C. Zabriskie was appointed by the Council to draw up a City Charter, which, after some delay, and much disputation, was finally ratified by a vote of the sovereign majority, and passed by the State Legislature, March, 26th, 1850.

On the 24th day of April, A. D. 1858, an Act was passed by the Legislature consolidating the City and County Governments, thus proposing to obviate the expense of separate sets of officers. This law came into partial effect on the first day of May, 1858, and completely on the first Monday of the following October. An Act amendatory of this Act passed the Legislature April 19th, 1859.

The Government of the City and County of Sacramento, under this Act, is vested in a Board of Supervisors—one from each of the eight districts. It is their office to settle all accounts against the City and County; to act with full powers in regard to all properties thereunto pertaining; to exercise a general supervision over the public expenditures and the public funds; to settle all accounts of officers having charge of the same; to lay out and manage all public roads and thoroughfares, and to appoint Road Overseers; to provide such public buildings as necessity requires; to license ferries, coaches, cabs, omnibusses, etc., as well as all theaters and other places of public amusements; also, all business, trades, and professions; to regulate a Fire Department; to see that the city is provided with good water; to provide for the support of paupers and the indigent sick; to suppress riots and disturbances; to establish a Board of Health; to make regulations in regard to streets, alleys, sidewalks, etc.; to locate election precincts, and to appoint Judges and Inspectors of Elections. In short, to exercise a general supervision over all such matters as pertain to the proper Government and well-being of City and County.

SACRAMENTO SCHOOLS.

As a complete history of our Schools would occupy more space than can be given in this DIRECTORY, we will only attempt a brief synopsis.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

According to the law authorizing the establishment of Public Schools, passed April 26th, 1853, County Assessors were, ex-officio, County Superintendents of Public Schools, and had the appointment of School Commissioners. H. J. Bidleman, County Assessor and ex-officio County Superintendent of Public Schools, acting under this law, appointed Dr. G. J. Phelan, Dr. H. W. Harkness, and George Wiggins, School Commissioners for Sacramento.

February, 1854, the first Public School in this city, was opened at the corner of K and Fifth streets, George H. Peck, teacher. Soon after this the boys and girls were separated, and Miss Griswold appointed to the Female School. In a short time it became necessary to open other schools. Mr. A. R. Jackson was appointed to one on I Street, near Tenth. Mr. Wm. A. Murray, to K, near Seventh; Miss M. S. Corby, corner of Tenth and F streets; and Miss A. E. Roberts, Fifth, between K and L.

It is said that in July, 1854, there were 261 pupils in the Public Schools, and 250 in Private Schools. In the same year E. B. Ryan, the Census Marshal, reported the number of children in the city between the ages of four and eighteen years, to be 1,218.

In October, 1854, the City Council established by Ordinance, and appointed a City Board of Education, thereby superceding the authority of the County Superintendent and Commissioners of Public Schools.

In June, 1855, a frame building was erected corner of Tenth and H streets, which was the first building erected for Public School purposes in this city.

In March, 1855, the school law was altered so as to give the election of the Board of Education to the people, and to increase their number to six—two to each ward. The census returns for 1855, gave the number of children in the city between the ages of 4 and 18 years, as 1,263—boys, 608; girls, 655. The number of names registered on the books of the Public Schools during the year, 970. Average attendance, 494. The annual returns of the Census Marshals for 1856, are as follows: 1,276; for 1857, 1,630; for 1858, 1,623; for 1859, 1,684; for 1860, 2,109.

In 1856 the lot corner L and Sixth streets was purchased for $5,000, and a brick building (Franklin) erected thereon, at a cost of from $15,000 to $20,000.

The annual sums expended in Sacramento city for school purposes are, for 1856, $25,000; 1857, $25,992; 1858, $31,066; 1859, $29,185; 1860, $33,063.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS.

Private Schools have, from the first, held a prominent and important place in the system of education. There has generally been about an equal number of pupils in the Private and Public Schools, since the organization of the latter.

The first Private School established, was by Professor Shepperd, in 1849, and was located on I street, between Third and Fourth. Subsequently schools were established by C. H. Parmer, R. D. Ferguson, and Rev. Jas. Rogus, of the Methodist Church; Rev. J. A. Benton, of the Congregational Church; Rev. John Ingoldsby, of the Catholic Church, and others.

In 1852, Mr. Crowell opened a school on Fourth Street, between K and L. In 1853, Mr. Stratton built the Sacramento Academy, on M Street, between Eighth and Ninth. In the same year, Miss Doty opened a school on Tenth Street, near Third. In 1854, Miss Mary S. Bennett opened a Female Academy on M, between Fifth and Sixth streets.

The majority of these schools having been discontinued, after a longer or shorter existence, others were established to supply their places; thus we have had old schools closing and new ones opening continually.

The following Private Schools are now open in this city: St. Rose's Male School, in the basement of the Catholic Church, corner K and Seventh streets. E. Ryan, teacher. Number of boys on the roll last session, 70; average attendance, 60. This school has been continued, under different teachers, for the past ten years.

BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS.

In regard to those charitable organizations, which should be a primary consideration to all communities, Sacramento may boast of a goodly array, both as to numbers and efficiency.

We can but give precedence, inasmuch as it has hit upon the most essential element of true charity, in the ignoring of sects, creeds, or country, in bestowing its bounties to the Howard Benevolent Association. Established in October, 1857. It is planned in a spirit of liberality and "good will toward men," which redounds greatly to the honor of its projectors—want and necessity being the only passports required to its good offices.

Its funds are derived from memberships—$5 each—from monthly dues, and from voluntary contributions.

The Society's Depot, on Sixth Street, between H and I, is under charge of a steward, who is ready, at all times, to attend to the calls of the unfortunate and distressed. The institution can, at any time, command the services of the Medical Fraternity, who have always shown a most honorable and commendable willingness to meet the Society's demands upon their professional skill.

As the condition of a charitable institution should be estimated by the amount of good accomplished, rather than by its "Cash on hand," the following statement, taken from the last annual report of its officers, will show this Association to be flourishing, according to its deserving:

On hand October 4th, 1859			$330 48
Received from Contributors	$1,926 00
" " Memberships	15 00
" " Interest	5 00
" " the County of Sacramento	194 90
" " Annual Collections in Churches	181 15

Bills paid to Oct. 7, 1860			3,139 45
Cash on hand, Oct. 8, 1860			$141 58

Since the above date, we have noticed in the daily prints that several collections in Churches, etc., have been taken for the benefit of this Society.

The number of persons relieved during the first year of the Society's existence, was 243; that of the year past, 680, an exhibit which proves the increasing necessity for such an institution, and its additional claim on the liberality and support of our citizens. As an organ for the dissemination of foreign and domestic news, it is generally admitted to be unequaled in California.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The State Agricultural Society was organized in 1854, and incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of May 13th, of the same year, since which time it has continued to increase in efficiency and usefulness, and has proved one of the most prominent features that have marked the rapid march of improvement in our growing State. The exhibitions of the Society have each continued steadily to improve upon those of each preceding year, developing and bringing before the public eye, the unrivaled Agricultural resources of California, as well as the advancement of her people, in the manufacturing, mechanical, the useful, and fine arts. The Annual Reports of these Exhibitions will compare favorably with those of any of the older States of the Union.

The Annual Fair held in September, 1860, was much in advance of any of its predecessors, both in the number and excellence of the articles exhibited, and the display of Stock. Agricultural and Horticultural productions on exhibition, being unusually large, and the receipts amounting in the aggregate to something like $30,000.

At the last Annual Meeting of the Society, Sacramento was fixed as the permanent site for holding its Exhibitions, and ample Fair and Stock Grounds having been purchased by the citizens, the facilities for this purpose, and the provisions made for every department interested, are full and complete in all their details.

The following is a list of the able and efficient officers chosen at the last Annual Meeting of the Society, for the present year:

OFFICERS FOR 1861.

Walsh, Colusi; A. Hayward, Amador; J. W. Thompson, Plumas.

Corresponding Secretary. O. C. Wheeler, Sacramento.

O. C. Wheeler, the oldest officer of the Society, was chosen Recording Secretary in October, 1854, and ocupied that position for three years, during which time he was associated with the management of the business in detail, and acquired that extensive stock of information relating to the affairs of the Society, which so eminently qualifies him for the position he now holds. Mr. Wheeler was elected Corresponding Secretary in August, 1857, and retains that position still, having been annually elected. We can only add our mite to the universal praise bestowed on this gentleman. To his untiring zeal and industry the present prosperous condition of the Society is in a great measure attributable. Whatever is for the benefit of the Society is never left undone, and by his great care for its advancement, he has rendered the office he holds, though an honorable, yet a very laborious one. We compliment the wisdom of gentlemen, who, for the past five years, have annually chosen this officer, and trust they will see how obvious it is to the interests of all concerned to continue to secure the services of one in whom the community have such unlimited confidence.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL PAVILION.

This commodious and elegant building erected by the people of Sacramento City and County for the accommodation of the Fairs of the State Agricultural Society, may justly be regarded as a monument of their spirit and liberality.

In the month of June, 1859, the ground upon which this building was located, a lot 160 feet square, situated on the corner of Sixth and M streets, was purchased, and the Society having selected the plan of M. F. Butler for the building, at once entered upon its erection. The corner-stone was laid with appropriate ceremonies, on the 1st of July, 1859, and on the 13th of August, the immense structure stood forth in all its imposing proportions, and was in complete readiness for the purposes for which it was designed; the work reflecting credit upon all parties engaged in its construction.

The front of the structure consists of a central arcade with arched doors and windows, marked by two projecting wings. A flight of twenty-three steps leads to the main building, which is entered through an arcade ten feet deep by forty-eight in width, three arched entrances leading into the main building, with side-doors, opening into two apartments, 20 by 30 feet area, and 17 in hight, one of which is at present used as a Library room, and contains a handsome collection of books, which is constantly increasing, by contributions from various sources. An apartment in the basement 16 feet by 58 in dimensions, in which is contained a Cabinet of over a thousand specimens.

At the time of its erection, the Pavilion was one of the largest public halls in the United States, and while the grandeur of its proportions strike every beholder, its peculiar fitness and adaptation for the purposes of an Exhibition Hall, is equally apparent. This spacious Hall is lighted with gas, from over four hundred burners, attached to an immense chandelier in the center, with smaller ones in each corner, and intermediate brackets in the walls, shedding a flood of light throughout the whole. At the north end, near the rear entrance, is a spacious marble fountain, the basin of which is twelve feet in diameter, forming at once (with its ample jets, kept playing during the Exhibitions), a most appropriate ornament and source of comfort to the crowd of visitors. The roof of the building, which is a single span, of one hundred feet without support, forms of itself a monument of mechanical skill, and one of the chief ornaments of this immense structure. In fact, the whole edifice is a monument of strength and durability, combining the useful with the ornamental in the highest degree.

The following dimensions will give the reader some idea of the extent of this immense structure: grounds, 160 feet square; building covers 100 by 140 feet; main hall, 100 by 120 feet; lower or basement hall, 100 by 120 feet; six committee rooms, each 18 by 27; arcade in front of main entrance, 10 by 48 feet; lobby, directly above, 10 by 48 feet; lobby, directly below, 10 by 48 feet; refreshment room on lower floor, 20 by 72 feet; yard, covered with awning, 50 by 160 feet. The materials used in the construction of the building are as follows: brick, 850,000; rough timber and lumber, 120,000 feet; dressed lumber, 35,000 feet.

DOMESTIC POSTAGES.

The law requires postage on all letters, except those to foreign countries, and to officers of the Government having the franking privilege, and on official business, to be prepaid by stamps or stamped envelopes, prepayment in money being prohibited.

Prepayment on drop letters is optional.

Rates of letter postage between offices in the United States, and to and from Canada and other British North American Provinces. Letters weighing one half ounce or under, being single rate, will be charged as follows:

For any distance not over 3,000 miles, three cents.

For any distance over 3,000 miles, six cents.

For every additional half ounce, or fraction of a half ounce, an additional rate is charged.

To and from British North American Provinces, for distance not over 3,000 miles, ten cents.

For any distance over 3,000 miles, twenty cents.

For every additional half ounce, or fraction of a half ounce, an additional rate is charged. Prepayment is optional on all letters for the British North American Provinces.

California letters (distance being over 3,000 miles) are chargeable with the ten cent rate of postage, and must be prepaid.

All drop letters, or letters placed in any post-office, not for transmission, but for delivery only, shall be charged with postage at the rate of one cent each.

Letter postage is to be charged on all handbills, circulars, or other printed matter which shall contain any manuscript writing whatever.

Daguerreotypes, when sent in the mail, are to be charged with letter postage by weight.

Printed Matter.—Quarterly rates of postage when paid qnarterly or yearly in advance, on Newspapers and Periodicals, to actual subscribers:

Weekly newspapers (one copy only) sent by the publishers to actual subscribers, within the county where printed and published, free.

Newspapers and Periodicals of the weight of three ounces, and under, sent to any part of the United States—daily, 45½ cents; six times a week, 39 cents; tri-weekly, 19½ cents; semi-weekly, 13 cents; weekly, 6½ cents; semi-monthly, 3 cents; monthly, 1½ cents; and for each additional ounce in weight an additional rate of postage is charged.

Newspapers and Periodicals, weighing not more than one and a half ounces, when circulated in the State where published, shall be charged with one half the above rates.

Small Newspapers, published monthly or oftener, and Pamphlets containing not more than sixteen octavo pages each, when sent in packages weighing not less than eight ounces, to one address, and prepaid by affixing postage stamps thereto, shall be charged only half a cent per ounce, or fraction of an ounce.

Publishers of Newspapers and Periodicals may send to each other from their respective offices of publication, free of postage, one copy of each publication, and may also send to each actual subscriber, inclosed in their publications, bills and receipts for the same, free of postage.

Books, bound, or unbound, not weighing over four pounds, shall be deemed mailable matter, and shall be chargeable with postage at one cent an ounce, or fraction of an ounce, for all distances under 3,000 miles, at two cents per ounce for all distances over 3,000 miles.

Circulars—Unsealed circular, advertisement, business card, transient newspaper, and every other article of transient printed matter (except books and small publications, as above), not weighing over three ounces, sent in the mail to any part of the United States, are chargeable with one cent postage each, to be prepaid by postage stamps.

When more than one circular is printed on a sheet, or a circular and letter, each must be charged with a single rate. A business card, or the name of the sender, on an unsealed envelope of a circular, subjects the entire packet to letter postage.

To inclose or conceal a letter or other thing (except bills and receipts for subscription) in, or to write or print anything, after its publication, upon any newspaper, pamphlet, magazine, or other printed matter, is illegal, and subjects such printed matter, and the entire package of which it is a part, to letter postage.

Any word or communication, whether by printing, writing, marks, or signs, upon the cover or wrapper of a newspaper, pamphlet, magazine, or other printed matter, other than the name and address of the person to whom it is to be sent, subjects the package to letter postage.

Postage cannot be prepaid on regular newspapers or periodicals, for a less term than one quarter; and in all cases postage must be paid on such matter at the commencement of a quarter.

Exchange newspapers and periodicals cannot be remailed without being chargeable with postage.

The proper mode of rating postage on music, is by the piece, without regard to the number of sheets in a piece. One cent for each piece not exceeding three ounces in weight; where a piece exceeds three ounces in weight, one cent should be charged for the first three ounces, and one cent additional for each additional ounce or fraction of an ounce.

On the same principle, packages of "playing cards" are rated by the package, and not by the single card.

Where packages of newspapers or periodicals are received at any post office directed to one address, and the names of the club of subscribers to which they belong, with the postage for a quarter in advance, shall be handed to the postmaster, he shall deliver the same to their respective owners. But this does not apply to weekly newspapers which circulate free in the county where printed and published.

The postage on all transient printed matter, foreign or domestic must be prepaid.

OUR CITIES—POPULATION AND RANK.

The following table will be interesting for present examination and future reference. It will be seen that the growth of several of the cities has been remarkable—eight of them having more than doubled in ten years. THE UPS AND DOWNS OF STATES.

The following interesting table was prepared by C. T. Pooler, of Utica, and published in the Herald of that city. It will be seen that New York commenced as the fifth State in 1790, rose to the third position in 1800, to the second in 1810, and from 1820, when she displaced Virginia, has been the "Empire State." Pennsylvania has held the most even position in the jostling rivalry to gain the head of the column. Several Western States have rapidly ascended. The entire table is interesting:

The whole number of Representatives is by law fixed at two hundred and thirty-three, who are apportioned among the States respectively, by dividing the number of the free population of the States, to which, in Slave-holding States, three-fifths of the slaves is added, by the number two hundred and thirty-three, and the product of such division (rejecting all fractions of a unit) shall be the ratio of representation of the several States; but as the number and amount of the fractions among so many dividends would, of course, in the aggregate, be sufficient to reduce the number of Representatives below the number specified, it was provided that the whole number should be supplied by assigning to so many States having the largest fractions, an additional member each for its fraction, until the number of two hundred and thirty-three members should be reached.
